

CURRICULUM VITAE

JAY H. ISENBERG, AIA
3505 West 28th Street
Minneapolis, MN 55416
612.799.3217 tel
612.926.8401 fax
isenb010@umn.edu

Architect: Architectural Design Professional Services
Conflict Resolution Services (design and construction related):
Mediation, Arbitration, Neutral Evaluation, Dispute Review Board
Adjunct Assistant Teaching Professor: College of Design (School of Architecture) and BAS (Construction Management Program) University of Minnesota

Education:

- University of Minnesota Graduate School of Architecture, Minneapolis, MN (M.ARCH)
- Colgate University, Hamilton, NY (B.A)

Professional History:

- Principal, Isenberg + Associates; 1986 - 1990, 1994 - Present
- Principal, Helgeson Desnick Isenberg; 1992 - 1994
- Principal, Architecturestudio Desnick + Isenberg; 1990 - 1992
- Project Architect, The Leonard Parker Associates Architects; 1983 - 1986

Professional Experience (Architecture): (project list available upon request)

- 20 years experience as a practicing architect, 17 as principal of own firm, responsible for over 200 projects
- General practice includes experience in most project types; 40% residential, 60% non residential, both new and remodeling with budgets to $6,000,000
- Clients encompass the private and public sectors including commercial, medical, residential, institutional, industrial, governmental (Department of Military Affairs), transportation (MN Department of Transportation), religious, educational, and non-profit groups.
- Experience in all phases of architectural practice from marketing, proposal writing, interviews, and contracts through the design, construction document, project management, and contract administration phases of various forms of project delivery.

Dispute Resolution and Risk Management Expertise: (ADR resume available upon request)

- Mediator and arbitrator since 1994 focused exclusively on design and construction related disputes including owner/architect, owner/contractor, and contractor/subcontractor disputes
- Recommended and/or consulted as a neutral on over 80 design and construction related cases for both private and public projects involving businesses, residences, municipalities and their agencies, insurance carriers, non profit groups, & engineers
- Mediated an architectural firm's dissolution over a three-month period including writing of the dissolution agreement. Consulted on other firm dissolution issues.
- Forensic Consultation assisting defense attorneys in the development of 3D computer trial exhibits and interactive exhibit models and drawings
- Attended American Arbitration Association Workshop for Partnering Facilitation Training
- Attended Dispute Review Board Workshop Training, Dispute Review Board Foundation, Seattle, WA

Teaching, Committees and Workshops:

- 2006 Member Minnesota Architectural Foundation
- 2005 Participant Corporate Director's Academy: a 4 day collaborative workshop sponsored by the Caux Round Table and The Hendrickson Institute for Ethical Leadership to train future independent corporate board directors.
- 2004 Member AIA MN Communications Task Force to review and strategically revise the three communication tools (magazine, newsletter and web site) of AIA Minnesota
- 2004 Attended Cranbrook Teacher's Seminar Workshop (Case Studies) sponsored by ASCA

- 2004 Adjunct Assistant Professor, curricula development and teaching; Building Production Processes, Arch 5561, graduate seminar, College of Architecture and Landscape Architecture, University of Minnesota
- 2004-present - Adjunct Assistant Professor, curricula development and teaching; Integrated Design Systems, Arch 4552, College of Continuing Education, Construction Management Program, University of Minnesota
- 2002-present - Adjunct Assistant Professor; Fundamentals of Professional Practice 5621, graduate seminar, College of Architecture and Landscape Architecture, University of Minnesota
- 2003-present - Intern Development Program (IDP) Education Coordinator, College of Architecture and Landscape Architecture, University of Minnesota
- 2003-2005 - Member, Professional Practice Advisory Committee, College of Architecture and Landscape Architecture, University of Minnesota
- 2003-present - Member, Practice/Education Committee, AIA Minnesota
- 2000-2002 - Workshop Facilitator and Developer: "Cooperative Design, Helping Engineers and Architects Work Together", a joint educational workshop program sponsored by AIA Minnesota and the Consulting Engineers Council of Minnesota, (3 sessions)
- 2000- present - Chairman, AIA MN Web Site Committee. Responsible for the design, redesign and strategic realignment of AIA Minnesota's first and second generation web site.
- 2002 Co-Chairman, Internet Forum Committee. Building alliances across practice and technology
- 2001-present - Member, AIA MN State Convention Programs Committee. Responsible for development and/or facilitation of over forty programs and keynote speakers each year for our State Architects' Convention.
- 1996 -1998 - Co-Chairman, AIA MN State Architect's Convention. Responsible for the reinvigoration of what had become a lethargic State Convention as well as the promotion to our members of the importance of the Exhibit Hall and its 125 exhibitors in the financial well being of the organization. Involved coordination of 12 subcommittees and their volunteers.
- 1998-present - Member, Government Affairs Committee
- 1996-present - Member, Council of Firms Committee

Seminar/Workshop Presentations:

- 11/2006 – Invited Panelist; The Emerging Architect's Dilemma, AIA Minnesota State Convention Program, Minneapolis, MN
- 4/2006 - Presenter, The Strange Case of George Costanza and Zaha Hadid, Intersections; Conference on Beginning Design Education, Iowa State University, Ames, IA
- 11/2004 - Co-presenter, Case Study Methodology; Bridging Practice and Education, AIA Minnesota State Convention Program, Minneapolis, MN
- 11/2003 - Panel member/presenter, Licensure, Practice, and the Value of a Design Education, AIA Minnesota State Convention Program, Minneapolis, MN
- 5/2003 - Cooperative Design: Fostering a Collaborative Design and Delivery Process. Continuing Professional Studies, College of Architecture and Landscape Architecture, University of Minnesota
- 3/2003 - How to Avoid the Project from Hell. Home Design Show, Minneapolis, MN
- 9/2002 -How to Plan, Design, and Manage a Web Site, AIA Minnesota Internet Forum. Co-chair of this AIA Minnesota committee planning three programs to help architects design or improve their firm's web site
- 10/2002 Co-creator, When Dream Becomes Nightmare; Exploring the Dynamic Relationship Between Architect, Client, and Builder. Performance presentation and discussion, Architecture and Psyche Symposium, Weisman Art Museum, Minneapolis, MN.
- 2/2002 Dispute Resolution Through Mediation and Arbitration, MNSPE (Minnesota Society of Professional Engineers, Continuing Education Program)
- 5/2001 Arbitration: Options and Strategies, AIA Minnesota Cont. Education Program
- 3/2001 Mediation or Arbitration? What, How, and Why? NARI Symposium 2001
- 11/2000 Cooperative Design, Helping Engineers and Architects Work Together, a panel discussion and presentation of the same workshop, AIA MN State Convention
- 2/2000 ADR; Lessons From The Trenches, AIA Minnesota, Continuing Education Program
- 1999, 2000 Guest Lecturer, Mediation/Arbitration and ADR, Professional Practice Class, School of Architecture, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, MN
- 1998-2000 Adjunct Faculty, Mediation Training Instructor; Mediation Skills for Business and Professional People, Center for Conflict Management, William Mitchell School of Law, St. Paul, MN
- 1999-2000 Guest Lecturer, Mediation/Arbitration and ADR, Professional Practice Class, Univ. of MN, Mpls., MN
- 1998-1999 Guest Lecturer on Partnering, Center for Conflict Management, William Mitchell School of Law, St. Paul, MN
- 1996 Mediation, Arbitration, or Here Comes the Judge, AIA MN State Convention Program

- 1996 Invited Seminar Panelist AIA National Convention, Minneapolis, MN on Architects in Cyberspace, the Internet, and the World Wide Web, Program provided by AIA National

Awards/Honors/Publications:

- 2/2002 Competition Winner: Tzedakah Box: The Art of Giving. Original 12"x12"x12" design was awarded second place in a juried competition to produce contemporary interpretations of a traditional ritual object for an exhibition held at the Minneapolis Institute of Arts, March - May 2002
- 11/2000 AIA Minnesota Presidential Citation; "...for determined commitment to a "new and improved" AIA MN web site."
- 8/1998 Competition Winner: Cafe Caribe. Design Proposal selected among 12 entrants for new theme restaurant. Winner of Outstanding Exhibit Award, Minnesota State Fair
- 11/1997 AIA Minnesota Presidential Citation; "...for creative ideas and joyful leadership..."
- 1985-1993 Team Member USA Masters Squash Team Maccabi Games, Tel Aviv, Israel. Bronze Medals 1985, 1993
- 1992 Blue Ribbon, History of the MN State Fair, Karal Ann Marling, Ruby's Cafe, MN State Fair
- 1990 Architecture Minnesota, Ruby's Cafe, MN State Fair, Unbuilt Minnesota Exhibition, St. Paul, MN

Leadership/Public Service/Entrepreneurship:

- 2006 - Donated, designed and built on site a new Sukkah (temporary religious festival structure) for Temple Israel, Mpls, MN
- 2006 Founding Member, Form + Content Gallery, an artist coop in the Twin Cities
- 2003 - present, Member, Advisory Board of Directors, RIMON, Jewish Council for the Arts, Mpls. MN
- 2002 Member, Sanctuary Restoration Committee, Temple Israel, Mpls, MN,
- 2000 Design, Production, and Marketing of Gore-Lieberman 2000 Souvenir Yarmulke. Individual entrepreneurial effort during the 2000 Presidential Campaign
- 1999 Architectural Consultant, Steering Committee Member, Twin Cities Sukkot Project, New Designs for an Ancient Tradition, an artist/architects' competition and exhibition at the Mpls Institute of Arts,
- 1999 Designer of the "Green Sukkot", built and exhibited at the Minneapolis Institute of Art with Joel Sisson of the Green Chair Project as part of the Twin Cities Sukkot Project
- 1999 Co-Publisher and Designer: The Ultimate Guide to Sanibel and Captiva Shells and Beach Life, a six panel folding laminated guidebook
- 1999 AIA MN Representative to the 49th International Aspen Design Conference, "design.digital", examining the "floating world of design in a digital world."
- 1999 Forum Administrator: AIA MN web site discussion forum. Moderated first ever live 2 hour on line internet discussion forum with four architects and James Lileks, Minneapolis Star Tribune writer
- 1999-2000 Member, Board of Directors, Minneapolis Mediation Program, Minneapolis, MN
- 1998 Providing Planning/Schematic Design Services for Hillel House, University of Minnesota as part of their current strategic planning process
- 1989-1998 Sponsored Squash Player: Squash Advisory Staff/Pro Team Member for the Prince Sports Group
- 1993-1994 Provided Schematic Design Services for Barton Open School, K-8 in preparation for school board funding proposal. Interacted with all administrative, parent, and teacher groups.
- 1997-1998 Mentor: University of Minnesota School of Architecture Mentor Program
- 1987, 1989 Member of Organizing Committee for National Youth Maccabi Games, an annual athletic and cultural event for Jewish youth age 13 - 16
- 1991-1998 Youth Athletic Coach: Soccer, Basketball, Baseball

Professional Memberships:

- American Institute of Architects
- AIA Minnesota
- American Arbitration Association Panel of Neutrals (Mediation and Arbitration)
- CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution Construction Panel of Neutrals
- American Arbitration Association Construction Advisory Committee, Minneapolis, MN